THE PURITAN is now in the fourth quarter of its first year. It was started last January-not very long ago, but long enough for it to have made a place for itself in 100,000 of the best homes of the country.

There is something about successes that interests us. The successful man, the successful enterprise, the successful novel, the successful play-all these appeal to us. We instinctively turn away from "frosts." The thing that the people want and will have is the thing we want and will have if we can get it. We want to read the book that everybody is reading; we want to read the magazine that everybody is reading-our friends are reading. We like to know why this thing or that or the other is a success-what it has about it that makes it a success.

The Manamater offere Costumes and Chrysanthemums Are Heralds of the Horse Show

This week Wanamaker's Horse Show prelude. Horse shoes arch the centre aisle-they are made of chrysanthemums in bloom. Horse heads of roses are in the rotunda; floral whips, bridles and saddles are in the air; a tandem team dominates the silks—horse everywhere.

On one of the rotunda counters is a collection of Hugh Graham's prize chrysanthemum blooms-Western Monarch, Golden Gate, Vivian Morrelle, Mrs. Perrine, Mrs. Charles Potter, and other varieties. Flower growers and connoisseurs should examine them.

There is a trade reason for all this. We show Bonnets. Costumes, Laces, Ribbons, Gloves and the thousand and one things demanded by elegant taste for individual dress-more especially for women.
